Everything's Going to be All Right

Those are nice reassuring words...sometimes. But in these days of economic and political upheaval can we honestly say them? Could we force ourselves to utter them to any of our neighbors in Haiti as they bury thousands of their countrymen and frantically search for food and shelter? And there a number of brothers and sisters in Christ very close to home who have experienced heartbreak and upheaval with the churches they have attended for years and now feel that in order to stay true to God's Word they must leave. Can I, with integrity, say to them, "Everything's going to be OK"?

God energizes those words with what He says through the prophet Isaiah and it is good for us to hear: "The Lord is exalted, for He dwells on high...and He will be the stability of your times." (Isaiah 33:5-6).

GOD is the answer! Not a political party, not the U.N., not even a church. Our Savior is the ONE stabilizing reality for every circumstance. So let us trust Him and find our comfort and satisfaction in His arms.
